Volume MMXXIV No. 2 ✦ FEBRUARY 2024

Pastor Pipho's Perspective

"Remember you are dust, and to dust you shall return."

On Wednesday, February 14, the Church begins the season of Lent. With the solemn liturgies of Ash Wednesday we begin our annual pilgrimage to the joyful baptismal waters of Easter. I invite you to take seriously the disciplines of Lent and to be open to the Holy Spirit working new faith and life.

1. Communal Worship – attend worship every Sunday in Lent and begin Lent with ashes on your foreheads and the truth ringing in your ears: we are dust, we are mortal, we are finite, we need God's help. We do not begin this journey trusting in our own strength to overcome and persevere, but trusting in the grace of God to lead and sustain us. Every Sunday, come together with other believers to be fed with Christ's presence in word, sacrament, and other disciples.
2. Time & Talent Commitment Pledge Drive – submit your "Time & Talent Commitment Form" on Sunday, February 18th. The Stewardship Committee has prepared "Time & Talent Commitment Forms" to invite you to grow in the offering of your time and talent to the congregation. In what ways is Christ inviting you to faith renewal through a renewed commitment to participate in the life of Trinity? As you have been hearing me say in sermons, "The Church of Jesus Christ does not have a mission. The Church IS the mission of Jesus Christ." In what ways are you willing to commit to participating in that mission?
3. Daily Lenten Devotionals – read/pray/reflect each day guided by the "Gathered Into One: Devotions for Lent 2024." This daily devotional is made available for free to all members and friends of Trinity (including Large Print versions) as a resource for daily devotions.

4. Daily Video Blogs – watch the brief daily videos produced by the ministry staff and lay members posted on the Trinity website (www.trinityworc.org) each day in Lent (except Sundays when we gather together in worship). These brief daily videos supplement the daily mediation from the Lenten devotional. If you would like to challenge yourself by filming a reflection please let me or Cantor Mark know and we would be happy to include you on the schedule.
5. Fasting – commit to a discipline of fasting. I invite you to think more deeply about fasting than just about fasting from earthly delights like chocolate or ice cream. I have fasted from the sounds of television, radio, and social media during certain parts of the day (e.g. after 8:00 p.m. until bedtime so my day ends in silence) and from speeding (and watched all of Massachusetts fly by me on the turnpike as I gently cruised at 65 mph in the far right lane of the pike). The point is: what can disrupt your routine in order to mark the season of Lent as an intentional time of prayer, confession, reflection, and repentance?
6. Prayer – commit to a discipline of prayer. This could easily be accomplished by committing to praying through the “Gathered Into One” daily devotional. You might also commit to praying the Lord’s Prayer daily when you wake up and go to bed and/or to commit to praying daily for the people in the printed prayer list in the bulletin. The point is: in what way can you renew your commitment to communicating with God through prayer in the season of Lent?
7. Almsgiving – commit to a discipline of almsgiving, responding to people in need. How can you give yourself, and your money, to grow in your relationship with your neighbors? You might consider an act of almsgiving showing up on Saturdays at Trinity in February and March to help serve breakfast at the Saturday basketball program. You might consider an almsgiving discipline reaching out to a grieving or hurting friend, neighbor, or family member. The point is: in what way can you grow in your relationship with God by growing in relationships of love and service with those hurting in your lives?

Whew, that’s quite a list, but know that these invitations are not a “To-Do List.” They are invitation of the Church of Jesus Christ to grow in faith and in relationship with God’s people. In these invitations, how do you discern the Holy Spirit calling you to grow deeper in your faith in God and in your commitment and relationships with God’s people? In what ways does your personal reflection lead you into public relationship and service with God’s people?

COUNCIL PRESIDENT'S REPORT – KAREN COUTURIER

Sharing some highlights of the January 8, 2024 Council meeting.

We focused on wrapping up old business from 2023, preparing for the Annual Meeting and looking ahead to new projects of committees and ministry teams for 2024. In his monthly report, Pastor Nathan highlighted work of the Stewardship committee on a Time and Talent Commitment Card to be introduced during Lent.

The Technology committee has been working on redesigning our website with a prototype to be available in January or February for review. Treasurer Nancy Fontneau noted we will update the proposed 2024 budget to show $25,000 for a future staff position in the Wages and Salary line.

Council voted unanimously to authorize spending up to $1,650 as an unbudgeted expense to pay for accounting assistance from Spinelli in setting up QuickBooks online.

The Nominating committee presented a slate of candidates. We currently have 6 candidates for 6 open Council positions, 4 candidates for the Nominating committee and 2 candidates for the N.E Synod Assembly and Bishop's Election. Additional nominations are welcome and will be taken from the floor at the Annual meeting.

Council approved a Finance Committee proposal that the unbudgeted income from the clothing shed be allocated to the Faith in Action Fund.

Building use update

- T.E.C. school – The negotiating team has reviewed details of the standardized lease with our legal consultant. We're scheduled to meet with T.E.C School director, Rupali Sharma in January and will request her response within 30 days.
- The Clemente contract was signed in December.
- We received an invoice for legal services related to Building use contracts. Council voted to authorize the bill from Fletcher Tilton for contract work be paid out of the 2023 unbudgeted expense line 7000.
- Council voted to add a line to the 2024 Budget for Building Use Legal Fees in the amount of $1,000.

Annual Meeting January 28, 2024

- Approved Bylaw language clarification for Financial Secretary – to be presented for vote by congregation
- Bylaw for TLC Care Team – to be presented for vote by congregation

Listening Team for Staffing Plan

The Listening Team comprised of members of the Council and Personnel committee will present a plan at the Annual meeting to have conversations with the congregation about current and future staffing needs with special focus on youth, family and outreach ministry.

Sabbatical Artwork Team

An Artwork team has formed to review artwork displayed in the Trinity building and grounds, to lead conversation with the congregation about the importance of artwork that is fully inclusive of the body of Christ, and intentionally proclaims welcome to persons of color and all God's children. The Team presented their initial plan at the Annual meeting.

New Business

Council Discussion on Trinity's recycling efforts. Council voted to instruct Building Manager, Frank Ricardo, to present to the Council at the March Council meeting economical alternatives for waste disposal companies that recycle items designated as recyclable. Our current waste disposal company incinerates all trash and does not separate recyclables.

Our newly elected Council begins February with a full day retreat Saturday February 10, 2024. We will get to know each other, organize ourselves for the year ahead and elect new officers.

As I complete my term as your Council President, I am thankful for all the Council members for faith and perseverance in our work together. It has been a privilege and pleasure to be a part of this dedicated leadership team.

ANNUAL MEETING UPDATE

The Congregational Annual Meeting was held following the 10:00 a.m. Holy Eucharist on Sunday, January 28, 2024. The meeting was called to order by Council President Karen Couturier and a quorum was established. The Congregation:

1. approved the 2024 Congregational Budget as presented. Three amendments to the budget failed.
2. approved Bylaws defining the responsibilities of the Financial Secretary and establishing the TLC Care Team as a Ministry Team.
3. elected Nathan Cummings, Kevin Erkkila, Jim Drackley, and Dale Mattice to three-year terms on the Congregational Council.
4. elected Rick Lagueux and Brad Lehman to one-year terms on the Congregational Council.
5. elected Loie Angelsten, Amanda Cummings, Dave Horn, and Paula Wyble to the 2024 Nominating Committee.
6. elected Susan Brown and Nathan Cummings as Voting Members to the 2024 New England Synod Assembly.
7. heard reports from the Stewardship Team (Kevin Erkkila), Listening Team (Karen Couturier), and Artwork Team (Deacon Susan Lindberg Haley).
8. Thanked Karen Couturier with a standing ovation in recognition for her two terms as Council President.

NEWS & UPDATES

2023 YEAR-END GIVING STATEMENTS / 2023 giving statements were emailed to all donors for whom we have an email address on file on Tuesday, January 23rd. Paper copies were mailed to donors for whom we do not have an email. If you don't receive a giving statement, or if you need an additional copy, please contact Financial Secretary Lisa Stone in the Church Office by calling 508-753-2989. Thank you for your financial generosity!

TRINITY YOUTH BASKETBALL – VOLUNTEERS NEEDED / Trinity Youth Basketball returns to the gym! Games are scheduled for Saturdays at 10:00 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. beginning February 3 and ending March 23 (except Feb. 17 school vacation week). The Championship Game, and celebration breakfast, will conclude the program on Saturday, March 23rd.

Volunteers are needed to host breakfast. As in the past, members and friends of Trinity will provide hospitality and a simple breakfast of milk & cereal, yogurt, granola bars, fruit and juice to participants and their families. Jennifer & Tim O'Connor and Christy and Matt Fyfe have volunteered to be the lead volunteers for this project. If you are willing and able to help, please let them or Pastor Nathan know. Volunteers will be needed for all Saturdays.

Donations of money and breakfast food items are also encouraged. Please make donations payable to Trinity Lutheran Church and designate donation for "Winter Basketball." Food items can be placed in the bin in the hallway leading into the Nave. Trinity Youth Basketball is a collaboration with Worcester Common Ground, a Community Development Corporation. Thanks for supporting this neighborhood ministry of fun, fellowship, and service!

LISTENING TEAM OPEN MEETINGS – FEBRUARY 11 / The Listening Team will be hosting discussions with the congregation at 9:00 a.m. in Christ Chapel and 11:30 a.m. in Jeppson Hall for conversation about staffing needs of the congregation moving forward. Please plan on attending to add your voice to the discernment. Please let Karen Couturier know if you have any questions or concerns.

SENIOR LUNCHEON – FEBRUARY 12 / The monthly senior luncheon will be held on Monday, February 12 in Jeppson Hall beginning at Noon. The suggested meal donation is $5/person. All are invited to attend for a time of food and fellowship.

TIME & TALENT COMMITMENT CARDS COMMITMENT – FEBRUARY 18 / The Stewardship Committee has designed Time & Talent Commitment Forms which will be mailed to all members of Trinity at the end of this week. The Stewardship Committee invites all members and friends of Trinity to prayerfully consider their participation in the life of the congregation and grow into new areas of involvement.

Similar to the collection of financial pledges in the Fall, the Stewardship Committee asks that completed forms be returned to worship on “Commitment Sunday” on Sunday, February 18 where we will give thanks for the commitments of time and talents. If you have any questions, please contact Stewardship Chair Kevin Erkkila or Pastor Nathan. Thank you for your prayerful consideration of your participation in the life of the congregation and supporting the ministry through the offering of your time and talents!

ARTWORK COMMITTEE / Trinity’s inaugural artwork committee met for the first time in mid-January. The committee is composed of a variety of members including Pastor Nathan, Cantor Mark, congregational members, former “Sabbatical team” members and ministry team chairs. There was thoughtful discussion around the committee’s purpose. It was decided that we should begin by celebrating and highlighting the current artwork that Trinity already owns. Be on the lookout for future updates for the artwork committee on the website and in the weekly bulletin.

COFFEE HOUR HOSTS NEEDED / The Hospitality, Fellowship and Welcoming team is looking for volunteers to host coffee hour on the first and third Sundays following the 10:00 a.m. service. Hosts are responsible for setting up/cleaning up and providing food. Paper goods and coffee supplies are provided by the church. Sign-up sheets for January through April can be found on the bulletin board outside of the copy room. Any questions can be directed to Amanda Cummings at adcummings42@gmail.com.

RETIREEES: GIVE TO TRINITY, GAIN TAX BENEFITS / If charitable giving is part of your financial plan in retirement, a QCD to Trinity from your IRA may provide tax benefits for you. A QCD (qualified charitable distribution) is a gift made by direct transfer from an IRA to a qualified charitable organization, such as Trinity. Unlike charitable gifts made from cash received by the IRA owner from their account, a QCD generates neither a tax deduction nor a bump in taxable income. However, like a distribution to the IRA owner, a QCD can help fulfill an annual required minimum distribution (RMD). QCDs can only be made from IRAs, from which a QCD may then be made. IRA owners who are at least 70-1/2 years of age can make QCDs of up to $100,000 annually.

Donors should consult their tax, financial and legal advisors for guidance on including QCDs in their retirement financial plan and then contact Trinity at 508-753-2989 or by e-mail treasurer@trinityworc.org, npipho@trinityworc.org to discuss giving intentions. Trinity's Federal Tax ID number is 04-2129136.

UPDATE RECURRING ELECTRONIC PLEDGE PAYMENTS NOW / Many members have availed themselves of the convenience of managing their pledge to Trinity through electronic payments at regular intervals through their VANCO account. Those who do so are reminded that any changes in the amount of their pledge for 2024 require deleting the 2023 recurring gift and starting a new one for the current year. To do this, sign into your VANCO account, click on Profile, select Transactions from the menu on the Profile page, and delete the recurring pledge transaction. Then return to the Home page and create your new recurring pledge gift. Deleting the old transaction will not delete the associated giving history, which will still be available for you to use in reconciling bank accounts and quarterly statements. The good news is that you now can set both a starting and an ending date for recurring transactions when you set them up, eliminating the need to delete the old transaction when updating a recurring gift.

If you checked the box on your Commitment Card authorizing the Financial Secretary to update your electronic transaction for you, know that this is not possible. For your security, the Financial Secretary cannot access your password-protected VANCO account. We regret any inconvenience this may have caused.

NEW MEMBER CLASSES

Please let either Pastor Nathan or Cantor Mark know if you would like to become a member of Trinity Church and consider participating in the New Member Classes they will be offering this winter. All members and friends of Trinity are invited to attend these sessions to learn more about the congregation and our Lutheran faith. Please contact Pastor Nathan or Cantor Mark with questions, or for more information. Class dates are:

- Sunday, February 11 at 11:30 a.m. (Jeppson Hall) – Building Tour: Take a behind-the-scenes tour of the building dedicated in 1952.

- Sunday, February 18 at 11:30 a.m. (Library) – Lutheranism 101: Basic introduction to the uniqueness of Lutheran theology.
- Sunday, March 17 at 11:30 a.m. (Library) – How Lutherans Read the Bible: Basic introduction to a Lutheran approach to reading scripture.

FAITH FORMATION & EDUCATION

SUNDAY ADULT FORUM / “Three Day Feast: An Adult Forum for Lent 2024” will be held on Sundays, February 25, March 3, 10, 24, and April 7, 14 at 11:30 a.m. in the Library (no sessions on March 17 or Easter Sunday). Each year, Christians around the world commemorate the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. We do this over a three day feast, beginning at sundown on the Thursday before Easter. This Three Day Feast is sometimes called the Triduum, Latin for “the three days.” In the observance of these three days, we mean to enact the meaning of the crucified and resurrected Christ.

At Trinity Church this Lent (and a few times in Easter), we will study the liturgy of the Great Three Days. This forum for adults is an excellent 6 session study for both those new to Christian faith and practice, and those who have been lifelong participants in Christian worship. Each session will also be available online via Zoom. The textbook, “The Three-Day Feast” by Gail Ramshaw will be available for purchase at the class sessions. Contact Cantor Mark Mummert for more information.

CHILDREN’S TIME / During the 10:00 a.m. Eucharist, following the Children’s message with Pastor Nathan on the Chancel steps, children are invited to go with Cantor Mark to Christ Chapel for the Children’s Time. Children return to the Nave at the Sign of Peace in time for the Lord’s Supper.

FAMILY SUNDAY SCHOOL / The whole family is invited to attend Family Sunday School normally held the first Sunday of each month in the Multipurpose Room from 9:00 a.m. to 9:50 a.m. The next session is scheduled for Sunday, February 4. Contact Pastor Nathan for more details.

WEEKLY BIBLE STUDIES / Trinity offers three opportunities each week for study of the scriptures for the upcoming Sunday. For more information contact the Bible Study leader.

- Tuesdays at 11:00 a.m. in the Library & Zoom led by Cantor Mark.
- Wednesdays at 9:00 a.m. in the Library & Zoom led by Dave Horn.
- Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m. in the Library & Zoom led by Pastor Nathan. Note: there will be no session on Ash Wednesday, February 14.

Sunday, February 4 Fifth Sunday after Epiphany

Isaiah 40:21-31 The Creator cares for the powerless

1 Corinthians 9:16-23 A servant of the gospel

Mark 1:29-39 The healing of Peter's mother-in-law

Psalmody: Psalm 147:1-11, 20c The LORD heals the brokenhearted

Hymn of the Day: ELW Hymn 859, Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, LOBE DEN HERREN

In Sunday's gospel reading, Jesus shows his power by healing Peter's mother-in-law, but he also chooses to have his power hidden from others. This year listening to Mark's gospel, we often will hear about Jesus as hidden in his weakness and crucifixion, but made known as the risen Christ to believers both then and now. The first reading is one of several in the Old Testament that likens the faithful to soaring eagles.

Sunday, February 11 Transfiguration of Our Lord / Last Sunday after Epiphany

2 Kings 2:1-12 Elijah taken up to heaven

2 Corinthians 4:3-6 God's light seen in Christ

Mark 9:2-9 Christ revealed as God's beloved Son

Psalmody: Psalm 50:1-6 Out of Zion, perfect in beauty, God shines forth in glory

Hymn of the Day: ACS Hymn 917, Dazzling Presence on the Mountain, WAVERLY

Over the Sundays after Epiphany, we have seen Jesus show himself to be Christ, the one anointed by God to be our Savior. This Sunday, the Transfiguration, concludes the time after Epiphany, as Jesus appears on a mountain in divine glory. Keep in mind that in three days, on Ash Wednesday, we begin the climb to the mountain of Jesus' crucifixion. The church holds side by side the glory of God and the cross of Jesus.

Ash Wednesday, February 14

Isaiah 58:1-12 The fast that God chooses

2 Corinthians 5:20b—6:10 Now is the day of salvation

Matthew 6:1-6, 16-21 The practice of faith

Psalmody: Psalm 51:1-17 Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love

Hymn of the Day: ACS Hymn 920, All Things of Dust to Dust Return, THIRD MODE MELODY

The beginning of Lent gives us the occasion to admit that we will die and that we are sinners. On Ash Wednesday we are marked with ashes—a sign of our death and of our sorrow for sin—but the ashes trace a cross on our forehead, where the baptismal water first marked us with God's grace.

12:00 Noon Ash Wednesday Liturgy with Imposition of Ashes

7:00 p.m. Ash Wednesday Liturgy with Imposition of Ashes

Sunday, February 18 First Sunday in Lent

Genesis 9:8-17 The rainbow, sign of God's covenant

1 Peter 3:18-22 Saved through water

Mark 1:9-15 The temptation of Jesus

Psalmody: Psalm 25:1-10 Your paths, O LORD, are steadfast love and faithfulness

Hymn of the Day: ACS Hymn 922, When We Are Tested, SLANE

Each year on the first Sunday in Lent we hear about Jesus being tested in the wilderness. In this way Jesus joined with us, who are also, one way or another, tested in some wilderness. We say Sundays "in" Lent, since when counting the forty days of Lent, we omit the six Sundays, because Sunday is always a celebration of Christ's resurrection. So this Sunday we are both in Lent and beyond Lent.

Sunday, February 25 Second Sunday in Lent

Genesis 17:1-7, 15-16 God blesses Abraham and Sarah

Romans 4:13-25 The promise to those of Abraham's faith

Mark 8:31-38 The passion prediction

Psalmody: Psalm 22:23-31 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD.

Hymn of the Day: ELW Hymn 667, Take Up Your Cross, the Savior Said, BOURBON

In Sunday's gospel, Jesus predicts his death and calls all of his disciples, including us, to follow him. The other readings liken us to Abraham and Sarah, who are called to have faith in the promises of God given us in baptism. We meet to renew our communal covenant of grace.
