Keeping the Feast

Cantor Mark Mummert

Each year, Christians observe the feast of Passover by celebrating the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. We keep this feast by telling the story and enacting the meaning of the story. We do all this in the community of the church, and not by ourselves. We need one another to keep this feast.

We have been studying this feast in our Sunday Adult Forum, The Three Day Feast. The Three Days, which stand at the center of the Christian year, begin at sundown on Maundy Thursday and conclude at sundown on Easter Day. The liturgy of the Three Days begins on Maundy Thursday evening with the service of Holy Eucharist, footwashing, and the stripping of the altar. The Three Days service continues on Good Friday with the reading of the Passion according to St. John, the bidding prayer and reproaches, and the adoration of the crucified. The Three Days come to a climax in the great Vigil of Easter on Holy Saturday with a new fire, the blessing and lighting of the paschal (Passover) candle, the Easter Proclamation, the service of readings, baptism and baptismal renewal, and the first Eucharist of Easter. The Three Days close on Easter Day. The liturgy of the Three Days is one liturgy spread out over three days. Each day relies on the other for us to tell the story well.

We invite you to make the Three Days and the rites for the days a priority in your life. To understand the Christian life, one must be inserted in the story of the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. While every Sunday is a celebration of the resurrection, the annual observance of the Three Days celebrates the resurrection in a fullness that is not possible on Sundays. During the Three Days, by telling the story from the gospel of John, we hear one way to speak of our faith. On Sundays this year, we tell the story from the gospel of Mark, a very different story compared to the gospel of John. The two stories, set side by side, show us many views of Christ.

As some of you know, I am the son of a Lutheran pastor. I spent every Sunday of my childhood and youth in worship. It was not until I went to my first Easter Vigil in 1984 at University Lutheran Church in Philadelphia that my eyes were open to the depths of the Christian life. The Three Days changed my life of faith forever. I have confidence that if you join me in keep the feast this year at Trinity Church, your life of faith will be changed, and you will see with new eyes Christ for the life of the world.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT'S REPORT – ROZ HORN

Here are some highlights from the Congregational Council Meeting of Feb. 12, 2024.

The first order of business was the Election of Officers. The following were elected:

- ❖ President: Roz Horn
- ❖ Vice President: Nathan Cummings
- ❖ Secretary: Beth Getman

The offices of Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer are already held by Nancy Fontneau and Dick Liberty, and Lisa Stone continues as Financial Secretary.

In his monthly report, Pastor Nathan described the Service schedule for Lent and Holy Week. He encouraged Council members to take part in the daily video devotions reflecting on the “Gathered Into One” Lenten devotional booklet. He reported on his vacation schedule in March (3/7 – 3/21), including guest preachers. He also announced that Pastor Nelson Rabell-Gonzales, who had been scheduled to preach during Pastor Nathan’s sabbatical, has been rescheduled to come on May 26, 2024.

The Treasurer reported a positive balance but a detailed report is delayed while the Quickbooks accounts are being transferred to the new system. A training session for the new version of Quickbooks has been held. A motion by the Finance Committee encouraging Committee Chairs, Ministry Team Chairs and Staff to stay within their budget allocations was amended and passed.

The Property Committee reported that donations to the clothes shed produced an income of $465.00 from the St. Pauly Foundation as of the end of the year. All clothing is donated to the St. Pauly Foundation who distributes it world-wide to needy areas. The income received by Trinity goes to the Faith in Action fund.

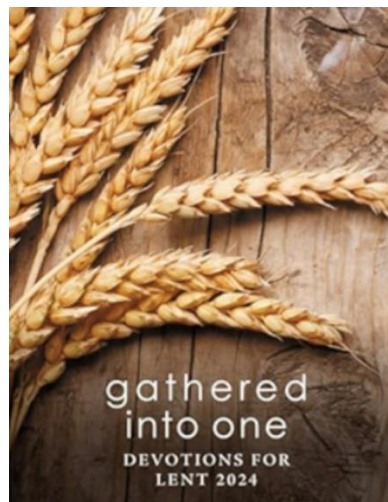

The remaining business for the Council consisted of determining the 2024-2025 meeting schedule for the Council and the Executive Committee, and assigning Council and Staff Liaisons to the Governance Committees and Ministry Teams. The Chairs of all these groups will receive a list of these Liaisons, whose purpose is to facilitate communication among Trinity’s many ministries and its leadership.

This report by the President of the Church Council is an informal summary of the business conducted by the Council each month. It is offered in order to facilitate open communication between Trinity's church leadership and the general membership. A detailed report of each Council meeting is recorded by the Council Secretary and reported to the Council at the next monthly meeting. Once those Minutes have been approved by the Council, they are available to anyone who requests a copy.

As I begin my term as your Council President, I am humbled and honored to have been chosen to serve in this capacity, and I shall continually ask God to help and guide me.

NEWS & UPDATES

DAILY LENTEN DEVOTIONS / We invite all members and friends of Trinity to journey through the season of Lent by reading, praying and reflecting each day with the "Gathered into One: Devotions for Lent 2024" daily devotional. Check the Trinity website at www.trinityworc.org for daily video reflections offered by the Trinity ministry staff each day in Lent (except Sundays when we gather together in worship).

These brief daily videos supplement the daily meditation from the Lenten devotional. If you would like to challenge yourself by filming a reflection, please let Pastor Nathan or Cantor Mark know and we would be happy to include you on the schedule. Print and e-copies of the devotional are available on Amazon and Barnes and Noble for $2.99.

NEW HOLY WEEK SCHEDULE / Please note the schedule for Holy Week. Unlike in previous years, this year there will be only one liturgy on Maundy Thursday, March 28 at 7:00 p.m. (with Holy Eucharist, foot washing, the Trinity Choir, and stripping of the altar) and one liturgy on Good Friday, March 29 at Noon (with the Trinity Choir). There are no changes to the Easter Vigil (Saturday, March 30 at 7:00 p.m.) and Easter Sunday liturgies (Sunday, March 31 at 10:00 a.m.). Please speak with Pastor Nathan if you would like a ride to the Maundy Thursday or Easter Vigil evening liturgies.

DONATIONS FOR EASTER FLOWERS / If you wish to make a donation for Easter flowers in memory or in honor of a loved one, please use the Easter Flowers envelope in your offering box or make a donation online through Vanco. If you use the online system, please be sure to list the name(s) of those you wish to remember in the donation comments column. Cost per plant is $20. Deadline to submit names is Wednesday, March 20. Thank you.

EASTER EGG HUNT DONATIONS / Hospitality, Fellowship & Welcoming is collecting treats for our annual egg hunt on Palm Sunday, March 24. Last year, we hid empty eggs and had the children exchange them for treat-filled goody bags. This worked well to shorten the prep time, and allowed for a more diverse array of treats. Please consider donating individually wrapped candies or non-candy items such as stickers, erasers, etc. We anticipate needing enough items for 15 participants. If you have any questions, contact Amanda Cummings adcummings42@gmail.com. Thank you.

A CROSS FOR LENT AND BEYOND – ARTWORK TEAM UPDATE / Throughout Lent, you will see the Ethiopian processional cross displayed next to the lectern and used during the gospel reading. The Artwork Team has made a conscious choice to adorn the cross with a piece of traditional Kente cloth. Kente cloth has been used in modern times as a symbol of African identity. Our hope is that it serves as a visual reminder of our connection to our siblings worshiping alongside us in 23 countries across Africa. This is not the first time Trinity has used the Ethiopian cross. Most recently, Cantor Mark used it during the virtual evening prayer sessions we held in 2020-21.

Historically, Ethiopian monarchs often gifted processional crosses as signs of gratitude, which leads us to wonder ... how did Trinity come to be in possession of one? We believe it was gifted to the congregation some time during Pastor Susan's tenure, but we have yet to confirm this information. If you have any insight of the cross's origin, we'd love to connect with you. As a reminder, the Artwork Committee was formed following congregational discussions from our "We Have a Dream" speaker series that occurred during Pastor Nathan's sabbatical in 2023. Our purpose is to look thoroughly at the visual and auditory art we have at Trinity and find ways to honor, celebrate and welcome persons of color through these mediums.

2023 YEAR-END GIVING STATEMENTS / 2023 giving statements were emailed to all donors for whom we have an email address on file on Tuesday, January 23rd. Paper copies were mailed at that time to donors for whom we do not have an email. If you haven't received a giving statement, or if you need an additional copy, please contact Financial Secretary Lisa Stone in the Church Office by calling 508-753-2989. Thank you for your financial generosity!

TRINITY YOUTH BASKETBALL / Thank you to all who have contributed money, breakfast items, and time in support of Trinity Winter Basketball. Trinity volunteers have helped to ensure a smooth kick-off to the basketball program in February. Volunteers have covered the remaining weeks of the program, but all members and friends of Trinity are welcome to come by and cheer on the teams! Games are Saturdays, March 3, 10, and 17 at 10:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Championship Saturday, and League Breakfast and Award Presentations, will be on Saturday, March 23rd beginning at 10:00 a.m.

PASTOR NATHAN ON VACATION MARCH 7 to MARCH 21 / Pastor Nathan will be taking two weeks of vacation in March. His last day in the office before vacation will be Wednesday, March 6 and first day back in the office will be Friday, March 22. Cantor Mark Mummert will be responding to pastoral emergencies during this time and is best reached on his cell by calling/texting 713-256-5980.

SENIOR LUNCHEON – March 18 / The monthly senior luncheon will be held on Monday, March 18 in Jeppson Hall beginning at Noon. The suggested meal donation is $5/person. All are invited to attend for a time of food and fellowship.

COLLECTION FOR CARTY CUPBOARD / During the month of March, we will continue to collect various items to help stock the shelves of the Carty Food Cupboard. Items they can use are hearty cans of soup, canned meals including Chef Boyardee, tuna and nutritious cereals. Thank you to all for your ongoing support and contributions to Carty Cupboard.

KING GUSTAV V ANTEPENDIUM / The preservation of the King Gustav V antependium will be completed in March and the altar cloth returned to Trinity in the next couple weeks. The cloth was first donated to Trinity in 1948 and is preserved thanks to the work of the Trinity 75th Anniversary Committee. Watch for more information about its display, and blessing, in the weeks ahead.

COFFEE HOUR HOSTS NEEDED / The Hospitality, Fellowship and Welcoming team is looking for volunteers to host coffee hour on the first and third Sundays following the 10:00 a.m. service. Hosts are responsible for setting up/cleaning up and providing food. Paper goods and coffee supplies are provided by the church. Sign-up sheets for January through April can be found on the bulletin board outside of the copy room. Any questions can be directed to Amanda Cummings at adcummings42@gmail.com.

NEW MEMBER CLASSES

Please let either Pastor Nathan or Cantor Mark know if you would like to become a member of Trinity Church and consider participating in the next New Member class offered on March 17. All members and friends of Trinity are invited to attend these sessions to learn more about the congregation and our Lutheran faith. Please contact Pastor Nathan or Cantor Mark with questions, or for more information. Class dates are:

- Sunday, March 17 at 11:30 a.m. (Library) – How Lutherans Read the Bible: Basic introduction to a Lutheran approach to reading scripture.

TIME AND TALENT OFFERING DRIVE – KEVIN ERKKILA

REMEMBER TO RETURN YOUR TIME AND TALENT PLEDGE FORMS!

Thanks to all those who have pledged their time and talents in support of our ministries at Trinity! As of this writing, 52 pledge forms have been returned. Members of the Stewardship Ministry have met with Pastor Pipho to begin connecting those responses with the appropriate ministry teams and committees, a process we hope to complete by Easter. If you have not yet returned your Time and Talent form, it's not too late—just drop it in the mail or in the offering plate at worship.

FAITH FORMATION – BETH GETMAN

Faith Formation is an important part of the life of Trinity, and we have exciting things happening!

We all witness the joyful children in worship as they scamper to the front of the Nave for Time with Pastor Nathan. Following this the children meet for singing with Cantor Mark in the small chapel, Bible stories and a fun activity. The first Sunday of the month our families with children meet before church for Family Sunday School. They have a snack, Bible stories and an activity, enjoying time with each other. The council is busy planning for an interim Youth and Family staff person, as they plan for a more permanent Youth position.

Adult Forum is starting in February with a class studying Holy Week. The Three Days, by Gail Ramshaw will be led by Cantor Mark. Join us starting February 25 after the 10am worship service—in the library. Other topics for this spring include Baptism and the new Draft ELCA Social Statement. Bible studies continue Tuesday morning and Wednesday mornings, and Wednesday evenings. The lessons for the next Sunday are reviewed and discussed, preparing us to hear the Word read and preached the following week. New Member classes are in process and are open to all who want to participate. The Book Club meets monthly and is reading a variety of books. The book for March is Hammet, by Maggie O'Farrell.

Come join us! It's fun to learn, helps us grow in our faith, and prepares us for God's work in our world!

SUNDAY ADULT FORUM / “Three Day Feast: An Adult Forum for Lent 2024” will be held on Sundays, March 3, 10, 24, and April 7, 14 at 11:30 a.m. in the Library (no sessions on March 17 or Easter Sunday). Each year, Christians around the world commemorate the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. We do this over a three day feast, beginning at sundown on the Thursday before Easter. This Three Day Feast is sometimes called the Triduum, Latin for “the three days.”

In the observance of these three days, we mean to enact the meaning of the crucified and resurrected Christ. At Trinity Church this Lent (and a few times in Easter), we will study the liturgy of the Great Three Days. This forum for adults is an excellent 6 session study for both those new to Christian faith and practice, and those who have been lifelong participants in Christian worship. Each session will also be available online via Zoom. The textbook, "The Three-Day Feast" by Gail Ramshaw will be available for purchase at the class sessions. Contact Cantor Mark Mummert for more information.

CHILDREN'S TIME / During the 10:00 a.m. Eucharist, following the Children's message with Pastor Nathan on the Chancel steps, children are invited to go with Cantor Mark to Christ Chapel for the Children's Time. Children return to the Nave at the Sign of Peace in time for the Lord's Supper.

FAMILY SUNDAY SCHOOL / The whole family is invited to attend Family Sunday School normally held the first Sunday of each month in the Multipurpose Room from 9:00 a.m. to 9:50 a.m. The next session is scheduled for Sunday, February 4. Contact Pastor Nathan for more details.

WEEKLY BIBLE STUDIES / Trinity offers three opportunities each week for study of the scriptures for the upcoming Sunday. For more information contact the Bible Study leader.

- Tuesdays at 11:00 a.m. in the Library & Zoom led by Cantor Mark.
- Wednesdays at 9:00 a.m. in the Library & Zoom led by Dave Horn.
- Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m. in the Library. Sessions on Wednesdays, March 13 & 20 will be led by Elder Calvin Cummings. There will be no session during the Wednesday of Holy Week.

TRINITY BOOK CLUB / All sessions will be held in the Library on Mondays at 1:30 p.m. If you have any questions, please contact Susan Brown sbrown5453@gmail.com. We hope you will consider joining us!

+ Worship at Trinity Lutheran Church +

Sunday, March 3 Third Sunday in Lent

Exodus 20:1-17 The commandments given on Sinai

1 Corinthians 1:18-25 Christ crucified, the wisdom of God

John 2:13-22 The cleansing of the temple

Psalmody: Psalm 19 The commandments of the LORD gives light to the eyes

Hymn of the Day: ACS Hymn 927, Christ is the Life, COE FEN

This Sunday's Lenten readings—the ten commandments, Paul's discussion of the foolishness of the cross, and the story of Jesus cleansing the temple—provide an occasion to think about the relationship between Judaism and Christianity. For Christians, Christ is always in the center of the conversation. Our baptism calls us to assemble in Christ, who is our temple.

Sunday, March 10 Fourth Sunday in Lent

Commemoration of Harriet Tubman and Sojourner Truth, renewers of society

Numbers 21:4-9 The lifting up of the serpent

Ephesians 2:1-10 Alive in Christ

John 3:14-21 The lifting up of the Son of Man

Psalmody: Psalm 107:1-3, 17-22

Hymn of the Day: ELW Hymn 660, Lift High the Cross, CRUCIFER

This Sunday's readings include what is perhaps the Bible's most famous sentence—John 3:16—as well as the ancient and odd story about faith-healing from snake bite. Join us to see how John uses the Old Testament story to proclaim Christ.

Sunday, March 17 Fifth Sunday in Lent

Commemoration of Patrick, bishop and missionary to Ireland

Jeremiah 31:31-34 A new covenant written on the heart

Hebrews 5:5-10 Through suffering Christ saves

John 12:20-33 The grain of wheat dying in the earth

Psalmody: Psalm 51:1-12 Create in me a clean heart, O God

Hymn of the Day: ELW Hymn 330, Seed That in Earth Is Dying, SAKORN SOM DOR I JORDEN

We are nearing the conclusion of Lent. In this Sunday's gospel, Jesus is likened to a grain of wheat that once buried in the earth comes alive to bear much fruit. We hear the word and receive the meal and so renew God's covenant among us.

10:00 a.m. Holy Eucharist (Nave) livestreamed at www.vimeo.com/trinityworcester

Sunday, March 24 Sunday of the Passion / Palm Sunday

Commemoration of Oscar Arnulfo Romero, bishop of El Salvador and martyr

Mark 11:1-11 Jesus enters Jerusalem

Isaiah 50:4-9a The servant submits to suffering

Philippians 2:5-11 Death on a cross

Mark 14:1 – 15:47 The passion and death of Jesus

Psalmody: Psalm 31:9-16 Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit

Hymn of the Day: ELW Hymn 351, O Sacred Head, Now Wounded, HERLICH TUT MICH VERLANGEN

Oftentimes, to grasp the fullness of something significant, we have to look at both sides. So it is that to approach the meaning of Christ, we have to say two things: Jesus and Christ; human and divine; dead and alive; bread and body. This Sunday celebrates these two sides: we begin by praising Christ with "Hosanna," and we go on to shout "Crucify him!" Come to join us as we fit both truths into one service.

10:00 a.m. Holy Eucharist (Nave) livestreamed at www.vimeo.com/trinityworcester

Thursday, March 28 Maundy Thursday

Exodus 12:1-4, 11-14 The Passover of the Lord

1 Corinthians 11:23-26 Proclaim the Lord's death

John 13:1-17, 31b-35 The service of Christ: footwashing and meal

Psalmody: Psalm 116:1-2, 12-19 I will up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord

Hymn of the Day: ELW Hymn 358, Great God, Your Love Has Called Us, RYBURN

This Thursday is called "Maundy," which means "command," from the verse in John's gospel in which Jesus commands us to love another as he loved us. We hear about the Passover lamb, Jesus' last meal with his disciples before his death, and Jesus washing his disciples' feet. You are invited to have your feet washed and then to wash the feet of another worshiper. You hold the heel, you pour the water, you wipe it dry. Finally we strip the chancel bare, to ready ourselves for Good Friday.

7:00 p.m. Holy Eucharist with Footwashing (Nave)

Friday, March 29 Good Friday

Isaiah 52:13—53:12 The suffering servant

Hebrews 10:16-25 The way of God is opened

John 18:1—19:42 The passion and death of Jesus

Psalmody: Psalm 22 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me

Hymn of the Day: ELW Hymn 342, There In God's Garden, SHADES MOUNTAIN

Why do we call this day Good? In John's telling of Jesus' passion, Jesus is "I AM," the God who reigns from the cross, the king who discusses theology with Pilate. Listen for the differences between John's passion and Mark's passion that we heard on Sunday. At this service we pray for everyone we can think of, and we confess that it is our sin that crucified Christ. [If it is helpful for you, you can come forward to reverence the cross as part of your prayer.]

12:00 Noon Adoration of the Crucified (Nave)

Saturday, March 30 The Great Vigil of Easter

Genesis 1:1—2:4a Creation

Genesis 7:1-5, 11-18; 8:6-18; 9:8-13 Flood

Exodus 14:10-31; 15:20-21 Deliverance at the Red Sea

Ezekiel 37:1-14 Valley of Dry Bones

Jonah 1:1—2:1 The deliverance of Jonah

Daniel 3:1-29 Deliverance from the fiery furnace

Romans 6:3-11 Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again

John 20:1-18 Seeing the risen Christ

Forgotten by most Christians for about 1400 years, the Easter Vigil is being restored to its place as a central worship service of the year. Weather permitting, we gather outside to light a great fire, praising the risen Christ as our light. We then sing songs and hear beloved stories, inspiring poems, delightful tales, and the Easter gospel from John, all of which proclaim that God is always giving new life. We then thank God for baptism. Finally we conclude this three-day service with the first holy communion of Easter, and we get to sing Alleluia again.

7:00 p.m. Service of Fire, Light, Readings, Baptism, and the first Eucharist of Easter

Sunday, March 31 Resurrection of Our Lord / Easter Day

Commemoration of John Donne, poet

Isaiah 25:6-9 The feast of victory

1 Corinthians 15:1-11 Witnesses to the risen Christ

Mark 16:1-8 The resurrection is announced

Psalmody: Psalm 118:1-2, 14-24 This is the day that the Lord has made

Hymn of the Day: ELW Hymn 370, Christ Jesus Lay in Death's Strong Bands, CHRIST LAG IN TODESBANDEN

What does it mean to be Christian? Christians are those who share their faith in the power of the resurrection of Jesus Christ to transform themselves and the world. Each Sunday we gather to praise the resurrection, but Easter is our annual blow-out celebration. This year we hear the gospel from Mark, and we sing, and we sing, and we sing.
